THE PAST

The region of Epirus is rich in evidence of its long and illustrious history. The past comes to life for visitors in the archaeological sites, in the numerous monasteries and temples, fortresses and traditional villages, age old churches and ancient water mills. History is alive here in the people of Epirus. It lives in their stories, their music, and their way of life. This is a place where yesterday and today blend together harmoniously, a source of pleasure for visitors, and a matter of pride for the local people.
